

About Our Team

DOAN HUY LONG

Managing Director

Long is a veteran of the tourism industry in South East Asia and a life long traveler. During his twenty-year career, he has visited every corner of South East Asia and traveled to many other parts of the world besides. It's his passion for travel that underpins his desire to create unique and memorable experiences for visitors to South East Asia. He grew up in Vietnam and is inspired by the colors, tastes and cultural heritage of the countries that make up this vibrant region. As new opportunities for travel continue to emerge, Long loves to develop and deliver unforgettable visits for clients with a particular focus on connecting with local culture and preserving natural resources.

His most inspiring travel experience that Long would like to share with other travel lovers:

- Enjoying high tea and a wonderful conversation with a wise monk in one of the many beautiful temples in Bagan, Myanmar.

His next destinations to travel to are:

- Greece, India

PHAM THI HOANG HAN

Senior Sales Manager

"A life-traveller" is an apt description for Han. Born and raised in Vietnam, Han has a great passion and love for this beautiful country. She specializes in leisure travel but MICE is also one of her key areas of focus. With nearly 10 years working as a travel consultant Han has also visited much of Laos, Cambodia, Myanmar and other parts of Asia. She currently lives in Ho Chi Minh City/Saigon and she loves the hustle bustle hub of this vibrant city. Han loves to guide visitors through its many colorful and characterful alleyways, discovering delicious "off-the-beaten-track" eateries chatting with the always friendly Saigonese.

Most impressive travel experience that Han would like to share with other travel lovers:

- Swimming in complete darkness in the world's largest cave in the Son Dong Cave system in Quang Binh province, Vietnam

Her next destinations to travel to would include:

- Mongolia, South Africa
